Dear Sir/Madam,

ACCCIM'S QUICK-TAKE SURVEY ON THE PREPARATION OF POST MCO'S EXIT STRATEGY

Malaysia is currently facing an unprecedented health and economic crisis, which have caused severe economic and business disruptions in recent months. All parties are standing behind our Government and dedicated front liners to fight the COVID-19 pandemic together.

The Movement Control Order (MCO), which began on 18 March has been extended to 28 April, third phase of the COVID-19 containment and mitigation.

There were calls for the Government to start planning the MCO's exit strategy to ensure a smooth transition towards the normalcy of economy and businesses. Will it be a staggered lifting or full lifting with or without conditions pertaining to the Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) on the COVID-19 prevention?

To this end, The Associated Chinese Chambers of Commerce and Industry of Malaysia (ACCCIM) would like to conduct a Quick-Take Survey to solicit feedback from business community on the preparation of Post-MCO's Exit Strategy. The survey also intends to gather the industry's expectations about the Government's medium-and long-term policies to ensure an economic revival and business sustainability.

So we hope members will help complete the survey for ACCCIM.

ACCCIM greatly appreciate your response and suggestions and look forward to your prompt reply by 17th April 2020 (Friday). For any concerns, please contact accim@accim.org.my.
