

Next: Guideline for Contractor Registration >

Effective June 1, 2015, all employees carrying out construction work are required to be a Registered Construction Personnel as stipulated in section 33, Act 520. Additionally, any construction personnel performing supervisory duties at the site or perform the work of a skilled worker, listed in the Third Schedule of Act 520 shall be accredited and certified as stipulated in section 33A, of the same act. In that regard, a guideline has been provided as a point of reference for the construction personnel to be registered as a Registered Construction Personnel in accordance with Act 520. This guideline is named Guideline for the Registration of Construction Personnel. It is hoped that all construction personnel will utilize this guideline to comply with the requirements of Act 520.

Definition ^

"Authorization" means a procedure by which the Authority or any person authorized by the Authority gives written warrant that a process, practice or service complies with the specific requirements;

Corporat Info v Board of Directors Top Management Legislation v Customer Charter Milestone Subsidiaries CITP Media v Publication v construction work from the beginning until finished;

"Construction Site Supervisor" means any employee who has the skill level, knowledge and experience received assigned to a construction site or any other such place to oversee the construction work;

"Construction Personnel" means-

- a) general construction worker;
- b) semi-skilled construction workers;
- c) skilled construction workers;
- d) construction site supervisor;
- e) construction project manager; and
- f) any other worker in the construction industry as determined by the Board

"Registered Construction Personnel" means a construction personnel registered or certified under this Act;

"Foreign Construction Personnel" means a person from a non-Malaysian citizen who holds a valid working permit and is employed to perform construction work

"Local Construction Personnel" means the Malaysian citizen who is employed to perform construction work.

"Work Permit" means a permission to work in Malaysia issued by the Immigration Department of Malaysia in accordance with the stipulated conditions.

"Construction Site" means the premises or area or location specified by the board where construction work is carried out.

"Tred" means a skill area associated with skilled construction workers as listed in the third table (act 520).

"Malaysian Citizen" means the person holding a blue identity card or military / police identification card issued by the National Registration Department of Malaysia.

Qualification Of Registration v

Basic Considerations Of Registration v

Terms Of Registration v

Registration Application v

Registration Criteria v

Qualification Of Registration Application v

Qualification Of Certification Accreditation	▼
Supporting Documents For Application Of Registration	▼
Registration Fee	▼
Registration Duration	▼
Category Designation / Tred	▼
Appendix	▼

Share

Next: Guideline for Contractor Registration >

Agencies under the Ministry of Works

CIDB Careline
1300 88 CIDB (2432)

Enquiries | CIDB Intranet | Disclaimer | Security Policy | Privacy Policy | Sitemap

Last Updated 20 Nov 2020 Visitor Counter 92029907

©2020 Construction Industry Development Board

Best viewed The latest browsers of Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox and Google Chrome.